Q and A with Murray Jose, PWA's Executive Director

Q: How long have you been working with AIDS Service Organizations?
A: I started in '94. At a recent Canadian AIDS Society meeting it was realized that I am currently the longest serving Executive Director for an AIDS Service Organization in Canada (11 years).

Q: What misconceptions about HIV are you surprised still exist?
A: I'm surprised that it is believed that there is a cure for HIV, that it's as easy to treat as popping a medication, that living with HIV is no big deal. The reality is that HIV/AIDS creates complex realities and as complicated as managing ones sexual health can be, when living with HIV, ones sexual health is affected for the rest of ones lifetime.

Q: In a milieu of AIDS Service Organizations, why is PWA unique and worth supporting?
A: PWA is a leader in partnering with other organizations, agencies and service providers to better serve our clients. PWA is striving to go above and beyond by incorporating health promotion into all our of services and programs delivered. The differentiation at our core is that PWA was created and is operated by in large by people living with HIV/AIDS. People living with HIV/AIDS's engagement in PWA's work is where we excel.

Murray Jose is PWA's Executive Director and he can be reached at mjose@pwatoronto.org or at 416-506-1400 ext. 218
